RICHMOND HIGH SCHOOL

RICHMOND

We Go to School

The hardest thing that R.H.S. students have to face (next to getting up) is the business of rushing off to school. The pictures on these pages show the various stages of that process.

In the remainder of this book we portray what students do or see after they get to R.H.S.

The '44 Pierian

A car? Well, well!—Some lucky fellows still get to school in the “modern” manner, we see.

R. H. S. Social Hall

Busiest place in the building—meeting-place for everything from Jenny Jones's Girl Reserve group to people waiting to have PIERIAN pictures taken—Social Hall is the hub of all R.H.S. enterprise.

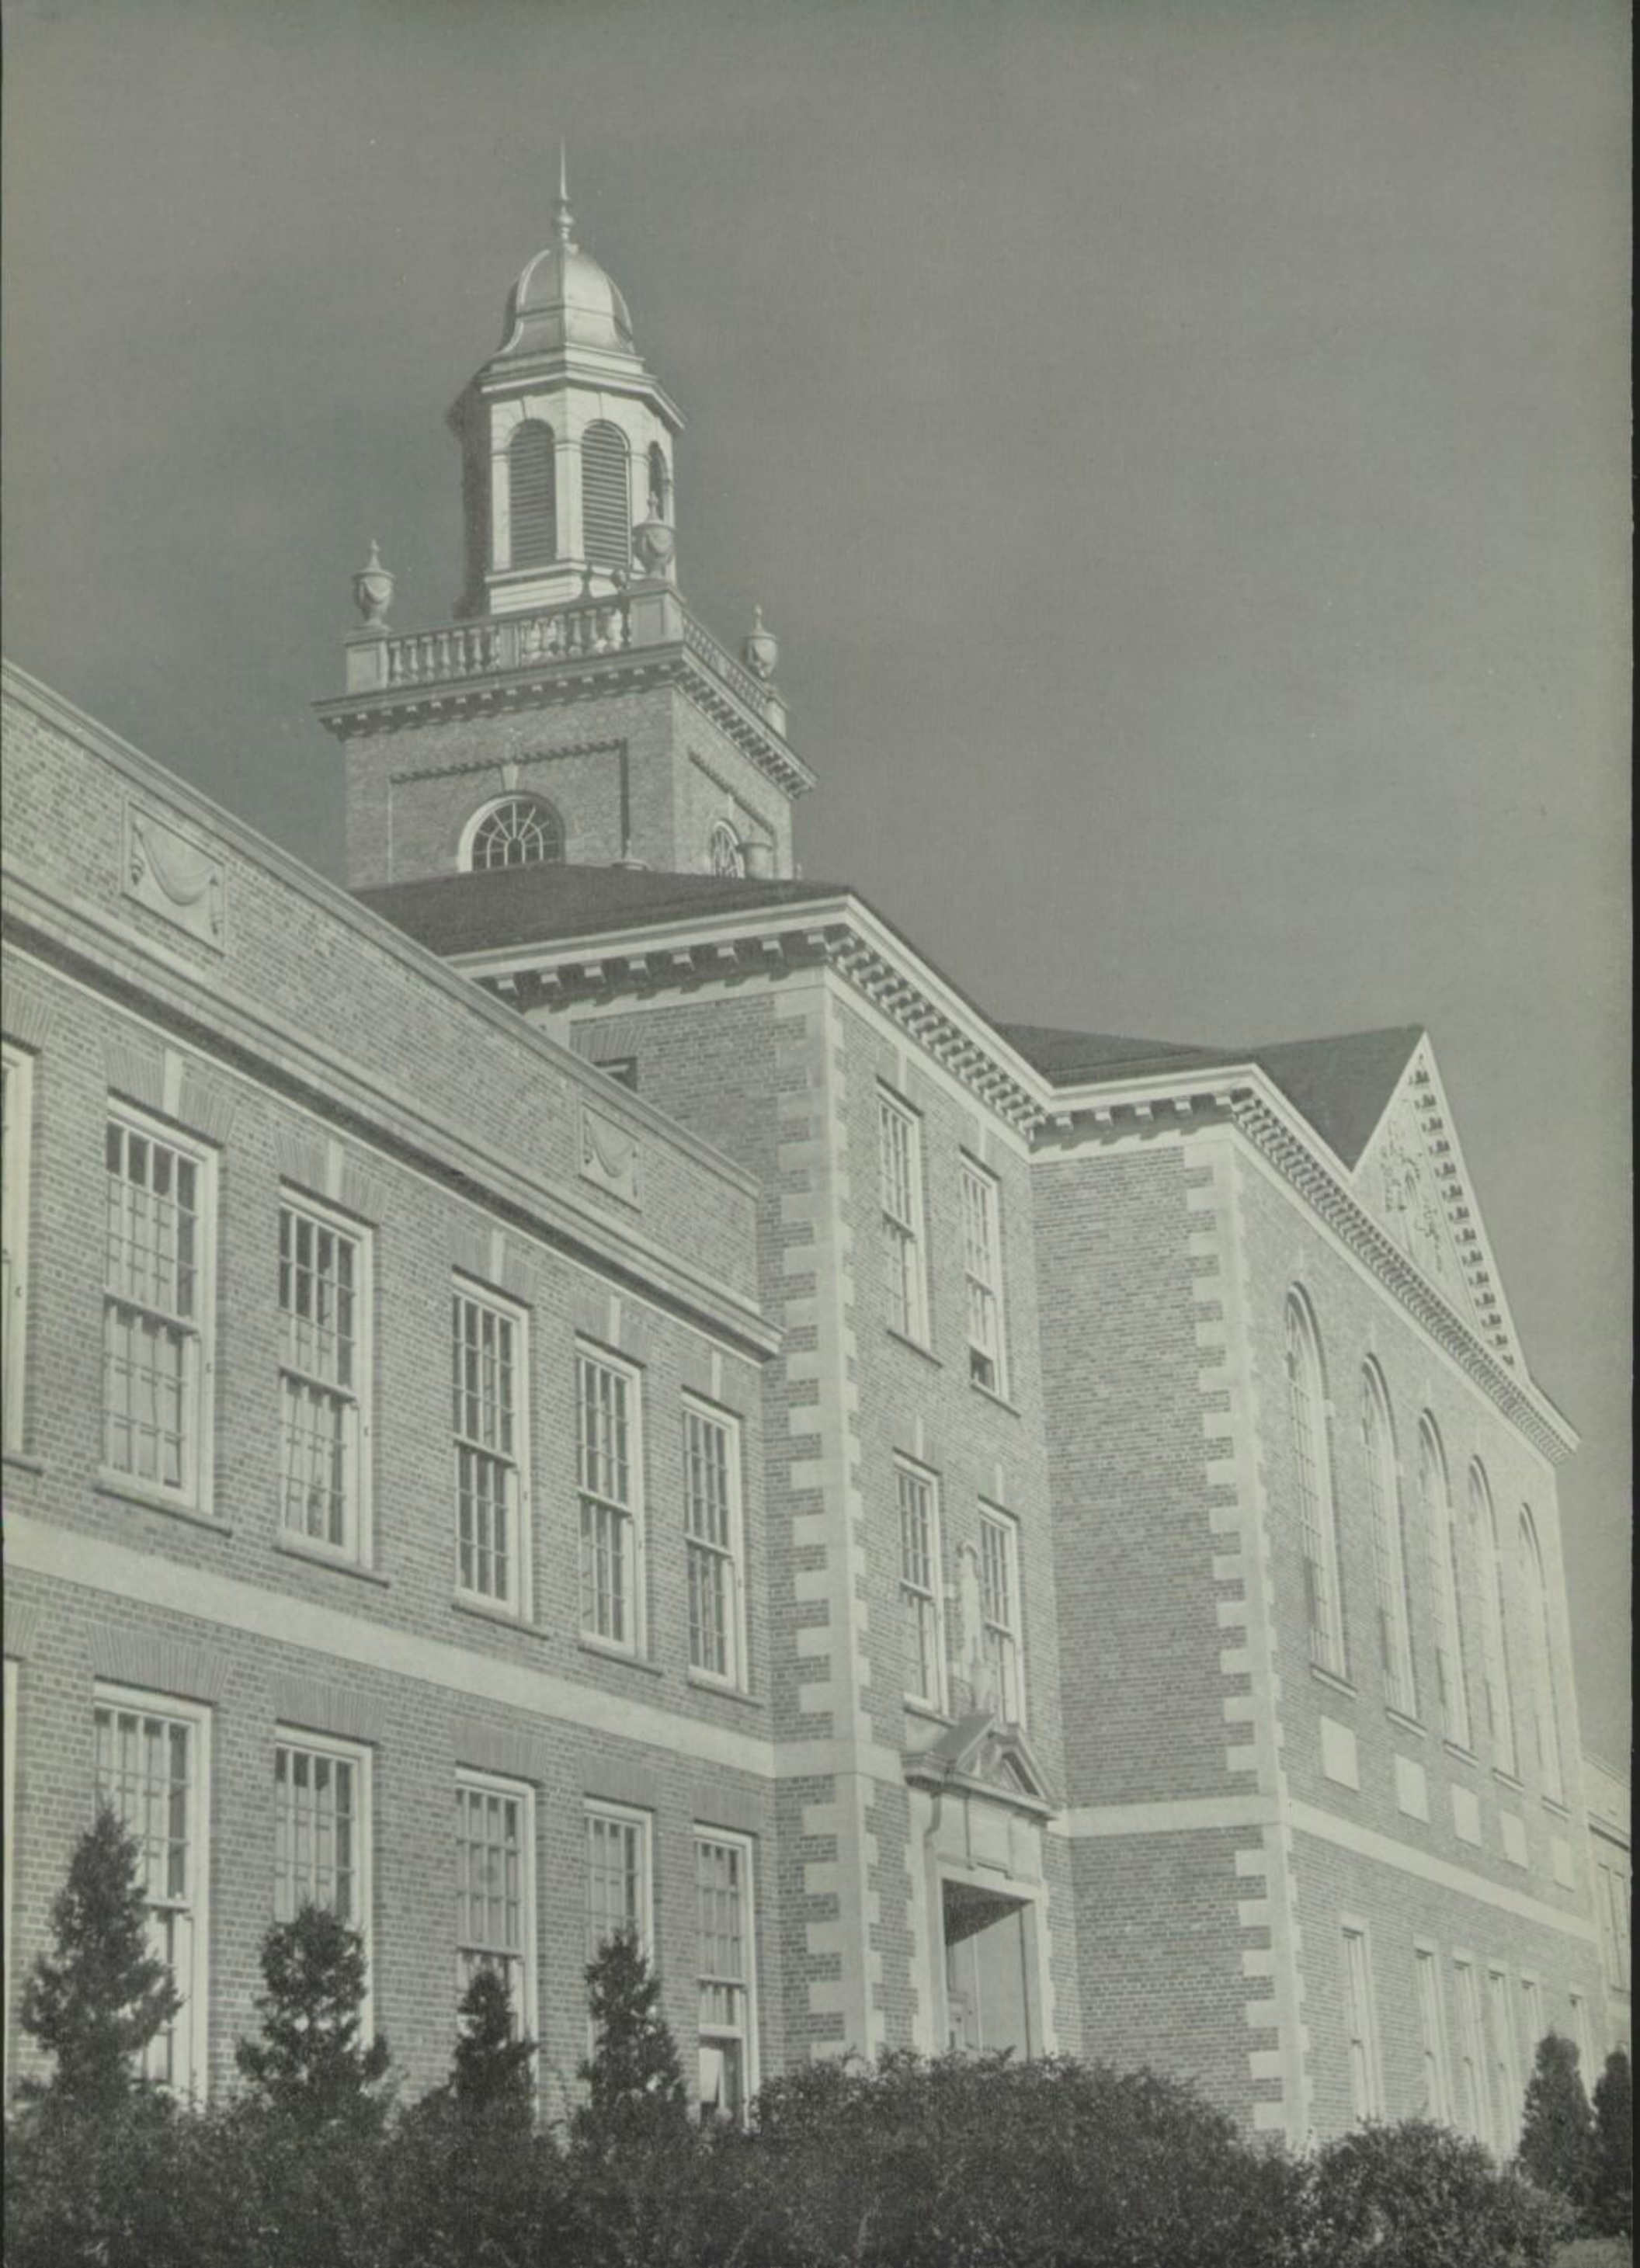

Always full between classes, Social Hall remains one of the most popular places at R.H.S.

Students find a friend's name on service honor roll plaque.

Principal J. R. Mitchell, who, although he has been at R.H.S. only two years, has become a friend and adviser to each student. The task of expanding the educational program of the high school to meet war time requirements is no small job, but Principal Mitchell has taken it right in stride. Assisting him are Miss Gladys Erdahl, dean of girls, and Mr. James Farmer, assistant principal and dean of boys.

Dedication

It is only fitting that this book, the 1944 PIERIAN, should be dedicated to the memory of the late W. G. Bate, who for more than twenty years served in the local school system.

Coming to Richmond in 1919, Mr. Bate was for two years principal of Morton High School, and was superintendent of the city schools from 1921-1942.

W. G. Bate won his goal in life. He served simply and sincerely, giving his efforts wholeheartedly to the cause of education.

His name will be honored always with those who have helped to build the educational system in Richmond.

This is an Age of Science

Chemistry may seem to many to be just a maze of glass tubes and confusion, but this scene in Mr. Ezra Miller's domain certainly looks interesting.

Science and Mathematics Departments

Changed somewhat to meet the war emergency, the R.H.S. Mathematics Department still teaches the reasoning and precision which is basic in the training for those machinists or engineers that the armed forces value so highly.

First row: Mr. Von Alexander, M.S., Math; Mrs. Mary Richeson, A.M., Math; Miss Julia Sperling, A.B., Math.

Second row: Mr. Wallace Brenneman, A.B., Math; Mrs. Edytha Wilkinson, A.B., Math; Mr. Lowell Rivir, M.S., Math and Aeronautics.

First row: Mrs. Myrtle Shallenburg, A.M.; Biology; Mrs. James Ronald, A.B., Biology; Mr. Von Alexander, M.S., Biology and Math; Miss Elma Eliason, B.S., Biology.

Second row: Mr. Ezra Miller, Ph.B., Chemistry; Mr. Wallace Brenneman, A.B., Physics and Math; Miss Katherine Coulter, A.M., Biology.

Whether it's courses in physics, biology, or chemistry, R.H.S. is doing its part in letting students in on the mystifying secrets which this modern, mechanical world holds for them.

Department of Foreign Languages

The knowledge of a foreign language has always been considered important from the cultural viewpoint, but with the allied occupation of foreign countries, the importance of knowing something of French, Spanish, or Latin is unquestioned.

Shown seated are, left to right: Sally Robbins and Mildred Henderson. Standing are, left to right: Mrs. Carrie Lane Charles and Bob Crone.

Mrs. Carrie Lane Charles, Ph.B., French; Miss Elizabeth Smelser, Ph.B., Latin and Spanish; and Miss Anna Bradbury, Ph.B., Spanish.

Department of English

First row: Miss Mary Alice Fornshell, A.M.; Miss Harriet Shoemaker, A.M.; Miss Emily Murphy, A.M.; Mrs. Edytha Wilkinson, A.B., B.L.S.; Miss Mary Elizabeth Fihe, A.M.

Second row: Mr. Dudley Johnson, M.S.; Miss Mary Daggy, A.B.; Mr. Clifford Keefer, A.M.; Mrs. Esther Thistlethwaite, A.M.; Mr. Glenn Holder, A.M.; Mrs. Florence Lacey, B.L.S.; Miss Julia Sperling, A.B. and Mrs. Eloise Coate, A.B.

A view of the beautiful R.H.S. library, "the place where you get the books for book-reports."

MRS. M. F. JOHNSTON

Director of the
R i c h m o n d Art Association for more than forty years.

McGuire Hall is the Beauty Center at R. H. S.

Said to be the only completely separate High School Art gallery in the country, McGuire Hall is the home of many unusual exhibits of paintings, photography, etc., in addition to the permanent collection of beautiful paintings which hangs in two of the spacious galleries.

Most of the musical and dramatic events not only of the High School, but of the city as a whole, take place in the auditorium in McGuire Hall. Thus it is indeed the fine arts center for the whole community.

A scene near the fountain in the lobby of beautiful McGuire
Hall.

MR. BEN G. GRAHAM

Director of music
at R.H.S. and music supervisor for the city schools.

Music—the R. H. S. Way

Richmond's Music Department, under the able direction of Mr. Ben G. Graham, has produced three large and capable organizations—the Choir, Orchestra and Band. These musical groups, despite the handicaps that the war has brought—accelerated programs, etc.—did not lose any of the quality which has distinguished R.H.S. musical groups in the past. This excellence is evidenced by the voiced approval of the members of the community who have heard them in their regular concerts or other less formal appearances.

Home Economics Department

Home Economics—where girls (and a few boys) learn the not yet outdated arts of cooking, sewing and homemaking.

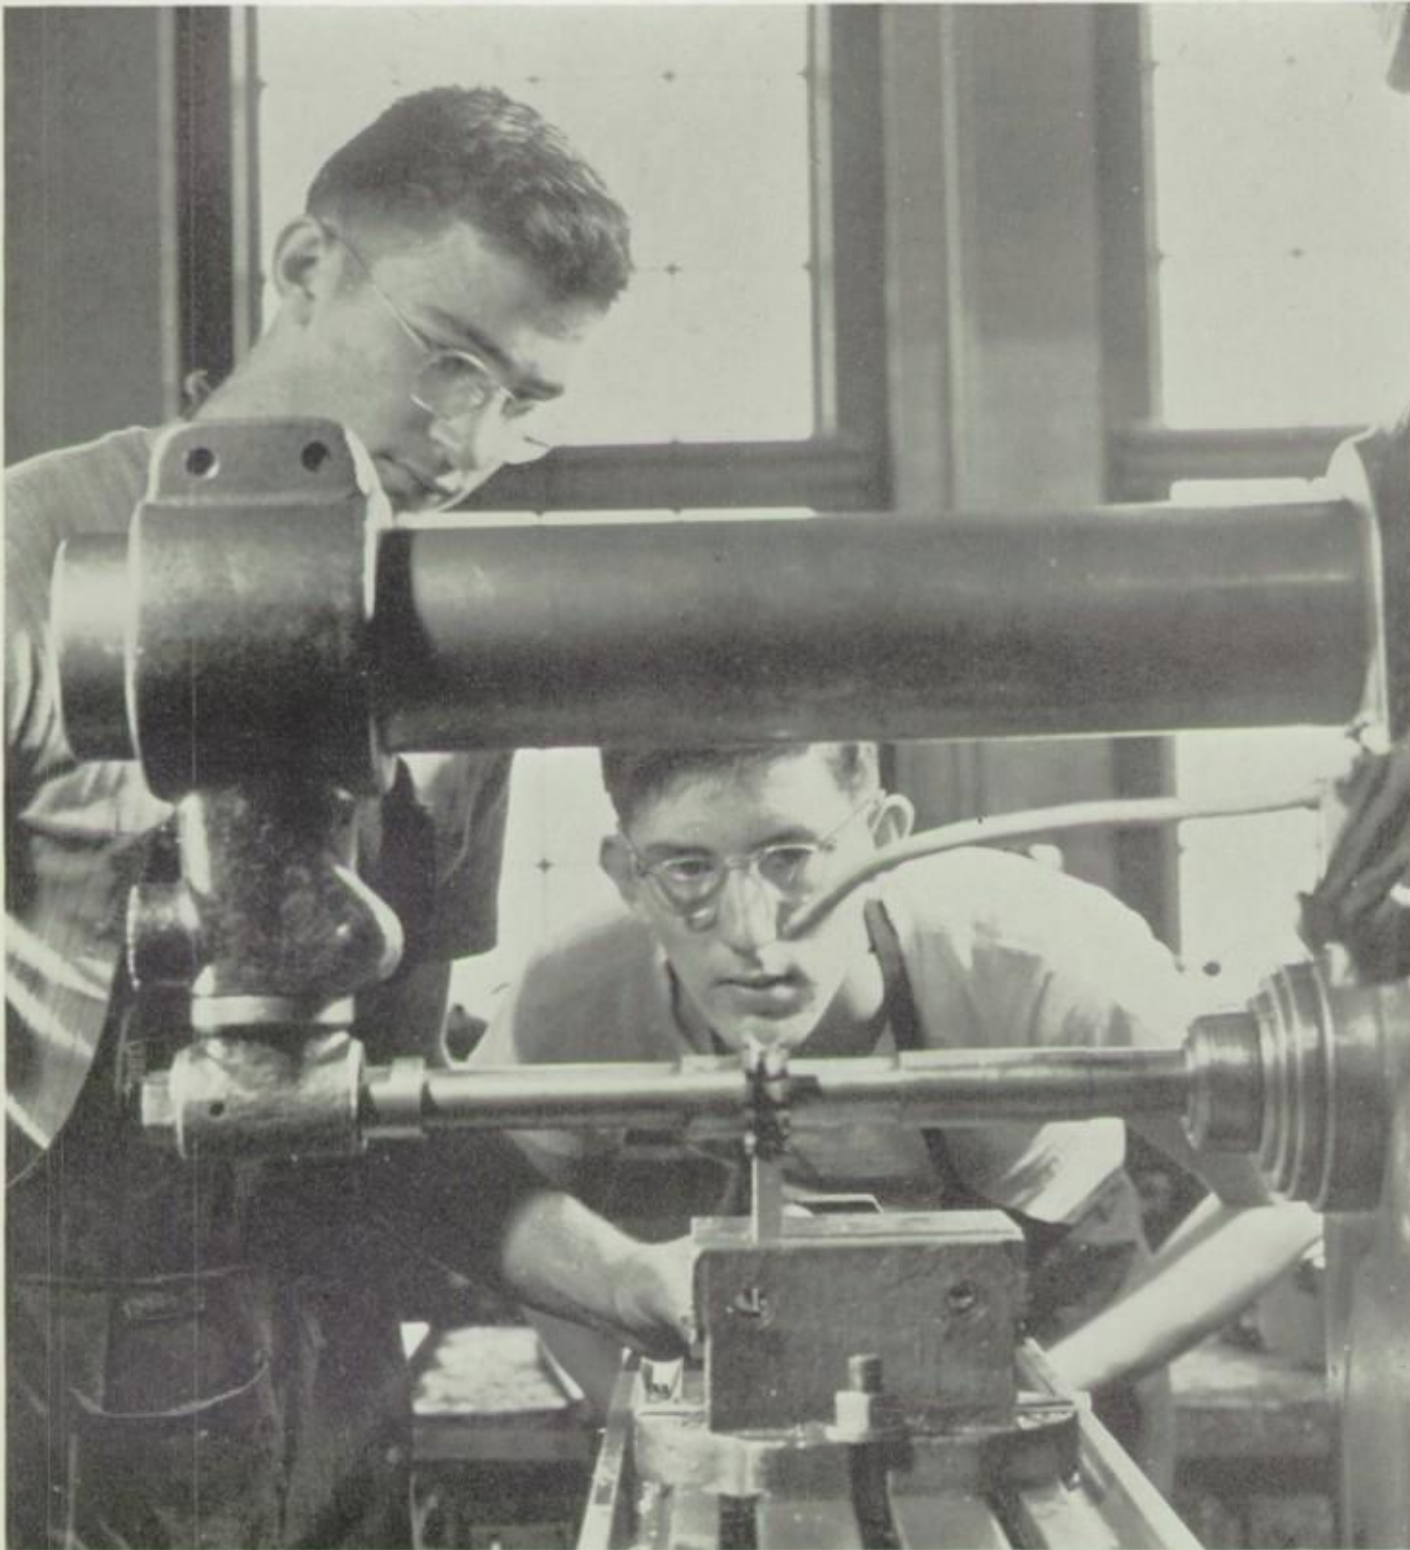

Shown, left to right, are, Joan Miller, Laura Hapner, Dorothy Johnson, and Gloria Long.

Miss Janet Land, A.B., Foods; Mrs. Jeanne Luckey, A.M., Foods; Miss Elma Eliason, B.S., Foods, and Miss Mary Fossenkemper, A. B., Clothing.

Vocational Department

The High School Vocational Department, with all its courses in printing, drafting, woodworking, machine shop and welding, is preparing the young men of today for jobs in the mechanized world of the future.

At the machine are, left to right, Paul Wuertemberg and Howard Weddle.

Mr. Albert Sears, B.S., Machine Shop; Mr. Otto Dorner, B.S., Printing; Mr. John DuVall, B.S., M.A., Drafting; Mr. Lowell Rivir, M.S., Machine Shop Math; Mr. Ray Treasure, M.S., Drafting and Woodwork, and Mr. Eugene Clehouse, B.S., Drafting and Machine Shop.

Commercial Department

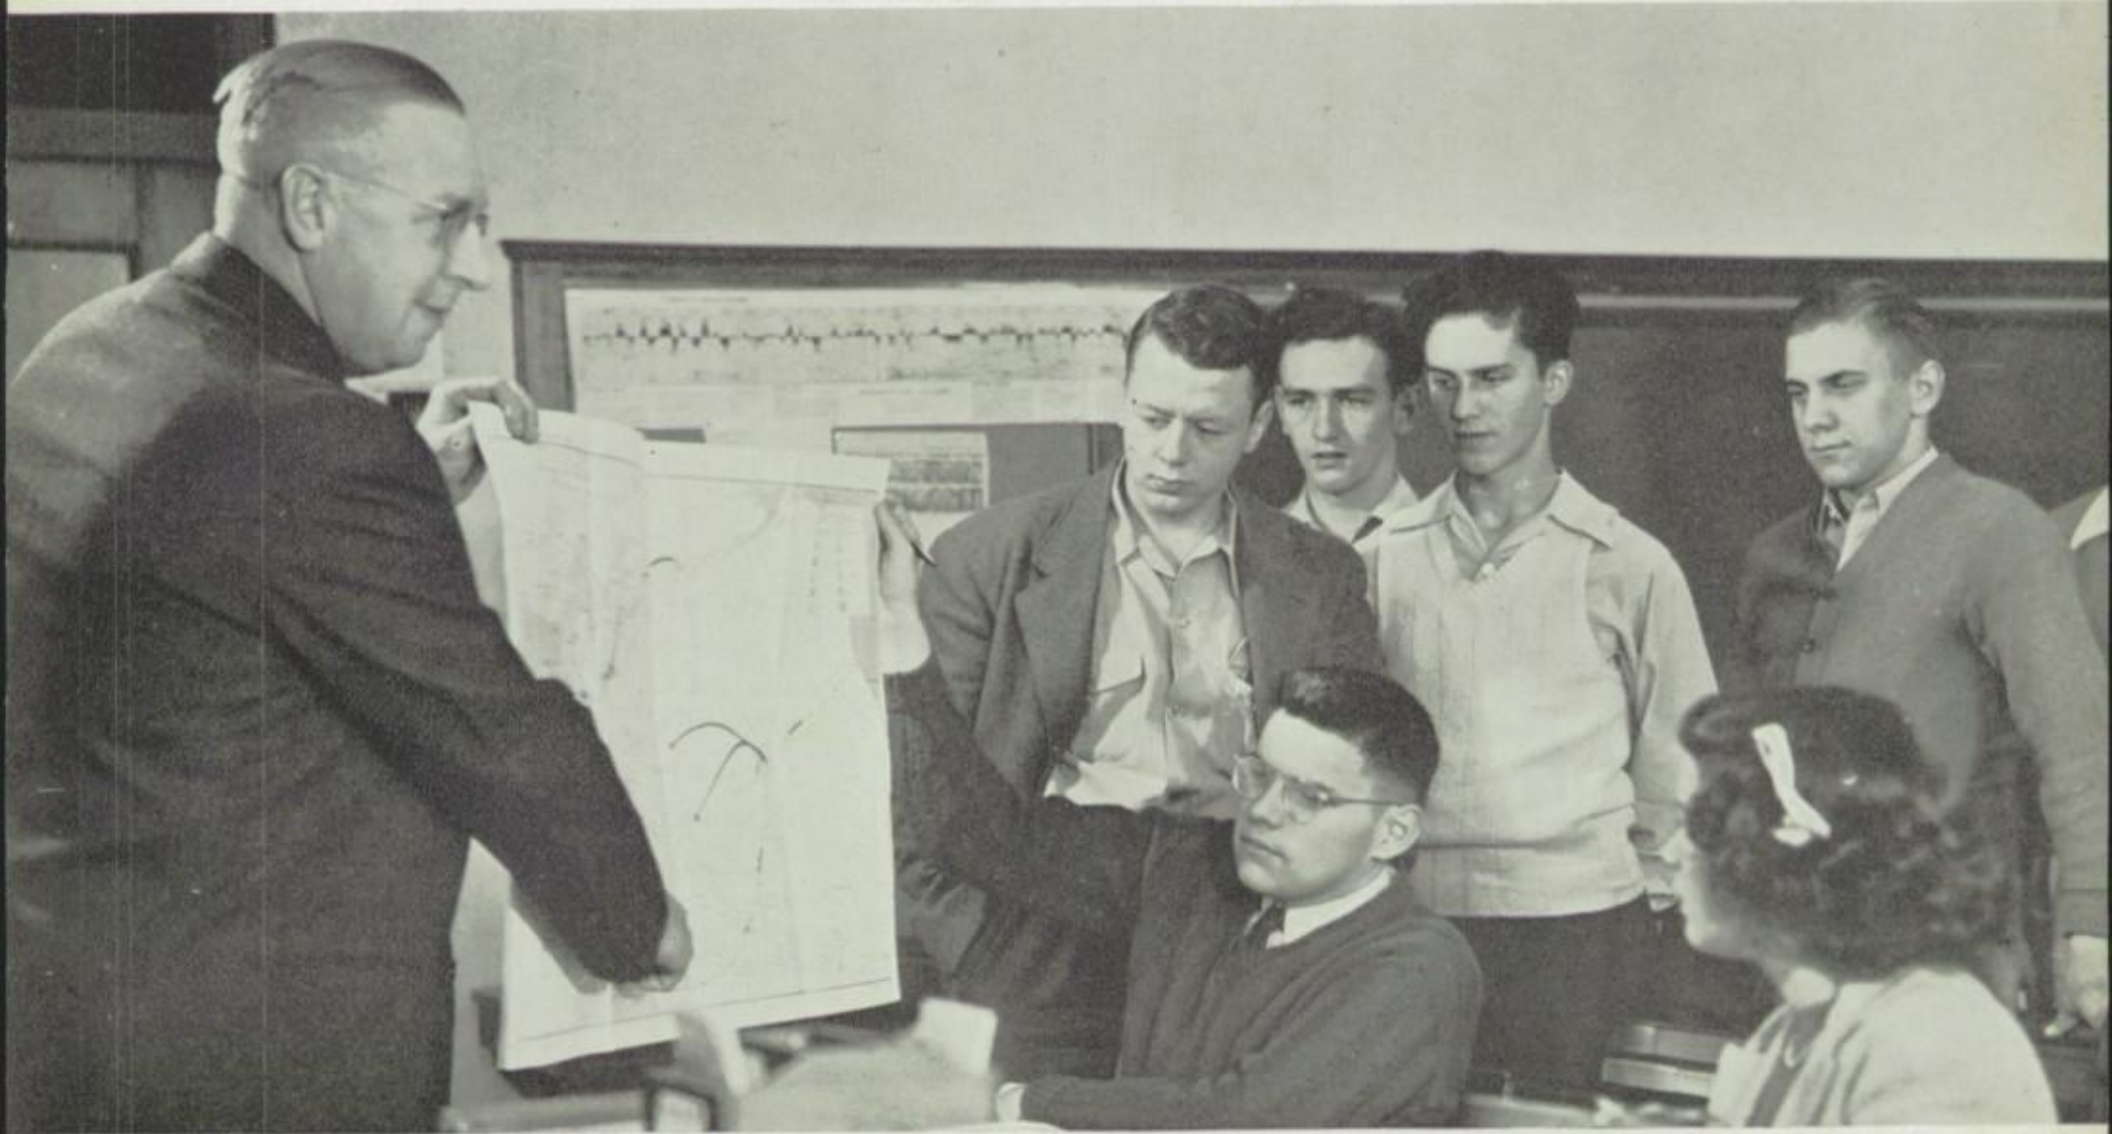

The Business Department at R.H.S., which is as much dominated by girls as the Home Economics Department, teaches typing, stenography, bookkeeping, selling, business law, and business organization.

Miss Helena Sutton, A.M., Typing; Mr. Paul Robertson, M.S., Bookkeeping; Mr. Robert Sollars, A.M., Bookkeeping and Office Practice, and Miss Helen Hicks, A.M., Short-hand and Psychology.

Social Studies Department

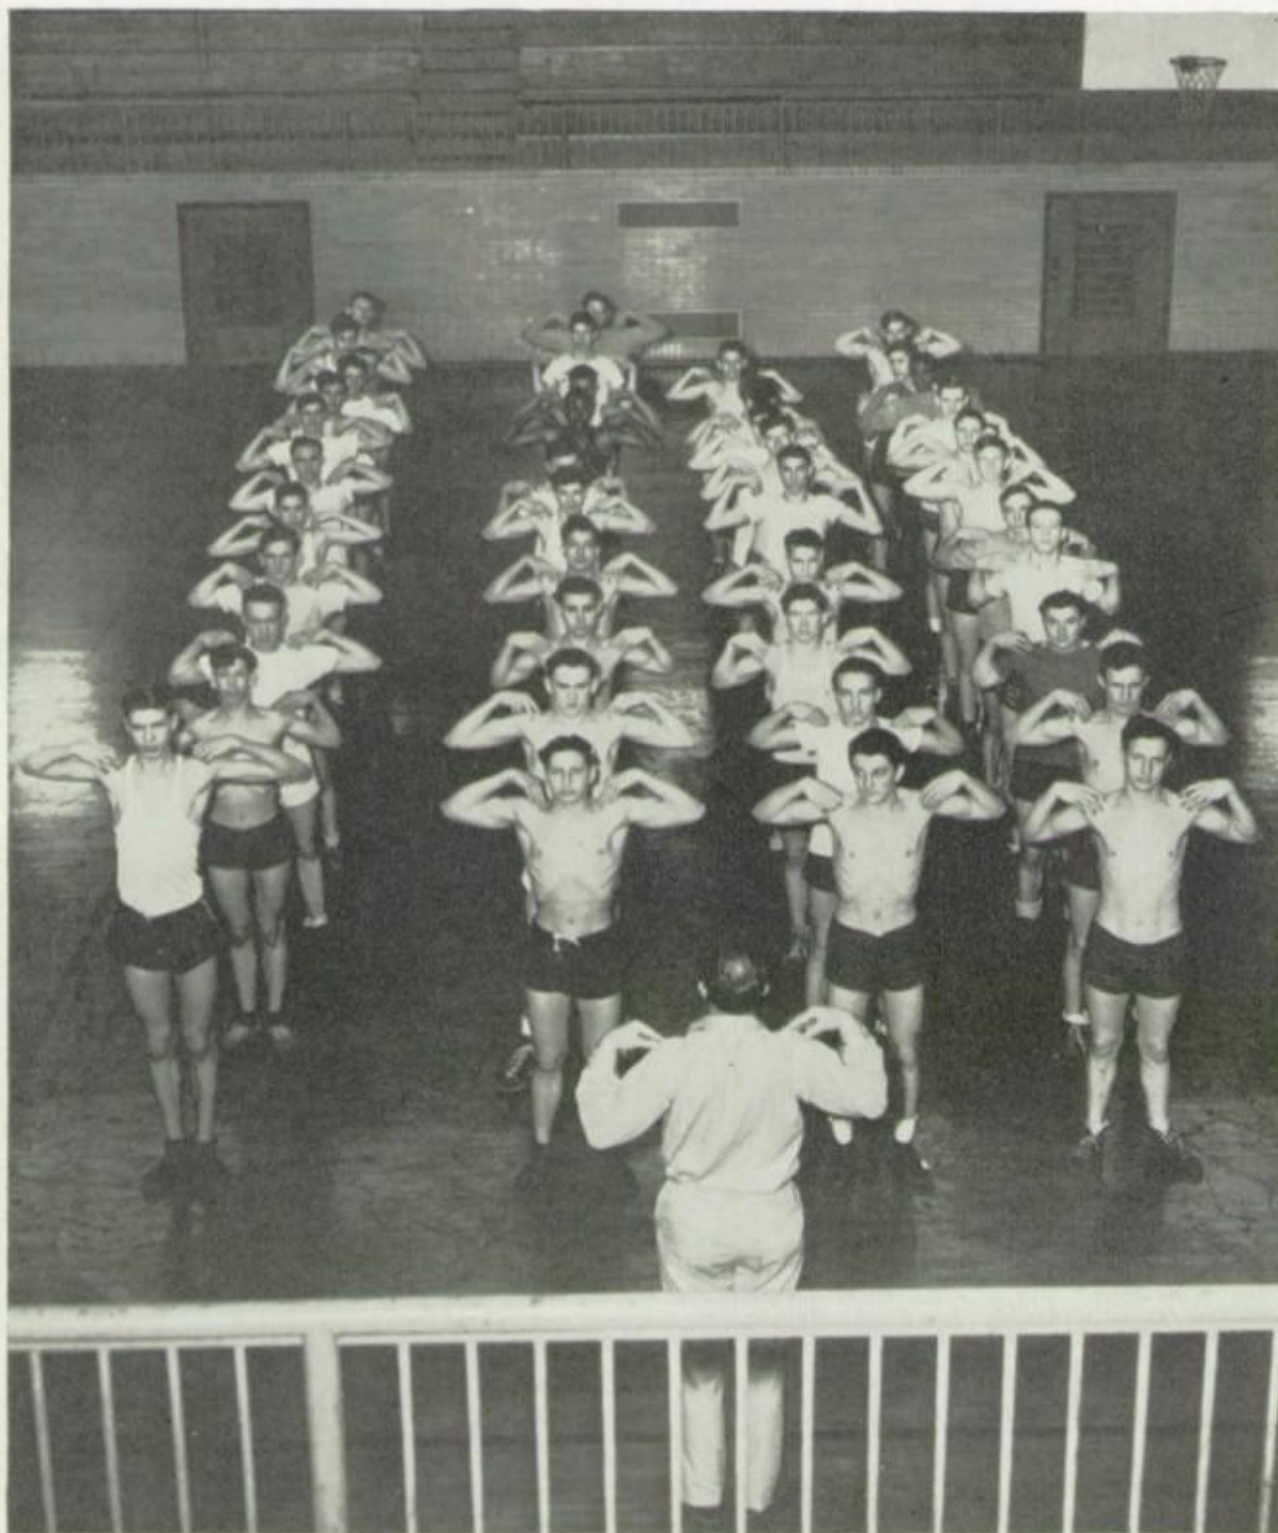

Current events have become so important of late that all things—historical, present, and possible future happenings—take on new meaning. R.H.S. is meeting this emergency by adding to the regularly prescribed course in social science new courses in Pan-American and Pan-Oriental relations.

Seated: Miss Donna Parke, A. M., History; Mrs. Marguerite Strahan, A.M., Pacific Relations, American Neighbors, and Civics; Miss Helen Hicks, A.M., Psychology and Shorthand; Miss Mildred Crabb, A.M., Vocational Guidance and Personal Problems.

Standing: Mr. Lowell Stafford, A.M., Commercial Geography and Civics; Mr. Clifford Keefer, A.M., History; Mr. Dudley Johnson, A.M., History; and Mr. Clarence Chase, A.M., Civics and Sociology.

Physical Education Department

Ushered in by the war, the first physical fitness program followed at R.H.S. has become a regular part of school life, keeping students more physically and mentally fit.

Mrs. Norman Johanning, A.B.; Mr. Elder Eberhart, A.M., director of athletics; Miss Helen Cook, B.S.; Mr. Palmer Sponsler, M.S.

Office Force

From left to right:
Mrs. Helen Davenport,
Barbara Frame, student helper, and Mrs. Mildred Logue.

Custodians

From left to right:
William Strauss, Mrs.
Abbie Davis, Charles
Hunt, Carl Coffman,
Charles Gardner, and
Sam Jackson.

It takes a capable group of custodians and office workers as well as teachers to keep a school of this size running smoothly.

Hallway Scene

This crowded hall scene, which is typical of many high schools throughout the United States, presents an inside picture of life between classes at R.H.S.

Crowded Halls are Typical

Between-Class Scenes at R. H. S.

CLASS OFFICERS

Seated: Barbara Jo Duvall, vice-president, and Delight Dilks, secretary. Standing: John Bullerdick, treasurer, and Howard Cofield, president.

Although the time of seniorhood flies by quickly, each year's class leaves its achievements and outstanding activities which serve as a challenge to those who will take its place as seniors in the coming years.

Activities

Three o'clock! School's out for almost everyone, and now begin what are officially known as "extra-curricular activities." The Register, The Quill for the literary minded, drama clubs, music with our excellent band, orchestra, and choir, the school dances . . . Devil's Den—. All these and many more are part of these extra activities, which make life at R.H.S. more interesting.

Second row: Garreth, Mecurio, Corman, Hapner.

Third row: Billheimer, Hart, Mills.

Fourth row: Green, Hastings, Adams, Crosley, Lawrence, Lane, Unser, Roberts, Elleman.

Fifth row: Jones, Gardner, Mayer, Monger, Pfafflin, Zuzalo, Patrick, Platt, Mrs. Strahan.

Activities Board

Second row: Griffis, Whallon, Miller, Duke, Finley.

Third row: Armbruster, Sheffer, Vinton, Reddington, Adams, Davis, Simonson.

Fourth row: Berheide, Robinson, Jesiop, Maurer, Pfafflin, Henderson, Steele.

Fifth row: Beasley, Fosdick, Dehner, Sperling, Gates, Griffin, Harris, Reddington.

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Strahan, the Jr. Red Cross has had a rather active program during the past year, collecting food for Christmas baskets, magazines for the U.S.O., and other things of this nature.

The Activities Board is the representative student group at R.H.S. that makes the decisions concerning social affairs, assemblies, and the like. They sponsored the noon mixers, 10B parties, the Irish Stew, etc.—Remember?

Archery Club

Often seen on the local athletic fields trying not to miss a target with their arrows.

Front row: Deissler, Coblentz, Messner, White, Kutter, Wallace, Wright.

Second row: Miss Cook, R. Duning, Wickett, Barth, Vinton, Clay, Hill, De-Lauro.

Third row: K. Duning, Ringley, Marker.

Chemistry Club

Often called "long-hairs" or "queers," this group seems to enjoy delving into the mysteries of chemistry enough to spend some time on it after school.

Second row: Oda, Gardner, Hunt, Bate, Wilke, Reid.

Third row: Whitesell, Mr. Miller, Wy-song, Edwards, Brenneman, Chasteen.

Concession Workers

Doc. Robertson and his hard workers are always welcome sights at basketball or football games, as long as they have any hot dogs or candy to sell.

Front row: Keiser, Veregge, Bizzaro, DeCamp, Walter, Wilhelm, House.

Second row: Hollingsworth, Bowsman, Kirkman, Tucker, Marting, Waters.

To Advance Christian Ideals

With a platform of "Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living," Hi-Y tries to bring to R.H.S. the spiritual side of living through such activities as the Easter Worship Service, the All-City Youth Conference, and the Thought-for-the-Week Program. The lighter side of life is covered, too, with the three annual dances—Queen of Hearts, New Year's Salute, and Commencement.

Divided into two groups, the club is cooperatively sponsored by Mr. Wallace Brenneman (Sr. Hi-Y) and Mr. Dudley Johnson (Freshman Hi-Y), both of the high school faculty, and Mr. J. K. Wolfe of the Y.M.C.A.

Second row: Oda, Sinex, Gardener, Griffis, Borton, Taylor, Cahoon.

Third row: Mr. Brenneman, Kemper, Hyde, Cline, Luckey, Berheide, Duvall, Bailey.

Fourth row: Coons, Fry, Brokamp, McGarvey, Coffin, Shanks, Daggy, Misner.

Fifth row: Reddington, Quigley, Gibbs, Trick, Smarrelli, Knapp, Wickemeyer, Merrill, Luby.

Second row: Mr. Johnson, Jefferies, Trick, Wood, Vogel song, Cobine, Sperling, Dallas.

Third row: Hale, Means, Armbruster, Wright, Stevens, Straight.

Fourth row: Peele, Ryan, Yaeger, Sickmann, Besson, Mayer.

Making use of large cards to spell out words is one of the many things Block R does at the basketball games.

Block "R"

On hand at most of the basketball games, this all-girl cheering group spent many hours at practice on their peppy yells and songs—with a final effect of boosting the boys on the playing floor and entertaining the crowd in the stands.

Senior Dramatic Society

Right side, bottom to top: Miss Mary Daggy, Duning, Arkenberg, Fox, Frame, Crist, Marley.

It takes many hours of rehearsal to learn the play letter-perfect, but it is fun. Witness the enjoyment expressed in the picture of a Senior Dramatics group below.

Dramatics at R. H. S.

Again the war had its effect upon drama at R.H.S., with "no time to practice" the usual complaint. Nevertheless, these two organizations, the Junior Actors' Guild and the Senior Dramatic Society, sponsored a few successful plays during the year and provided entertainment for the club groups in after-school meetings.

Below: A group of "Junior" actors rehearse backstage in McGuire Hall.

Jr. Actors' Guild

Front row: Bliman, Carter, Cutter, Caskey, Baker, Ingle, Lane.

Second row: Blainas, Edwards, Wysong, Hascall, Smith, Miss Fihe.

Third row: Hardwick, Hunt, Fitzharris.

Fourth row: Maunde, Trick, Smith, Pickett, Beasley.

Fifth row: Saffer, Kinley, Finley, Gilmer, McWhinney.

Social Dancing

A shortage of boys in this club didn't stop them from having a good time.

Front row: Miss Johanning, Reddington, Kirtley, Larsh, Hackman, Hartman.

Second row: Burgess, Edsall, Saffer, Hudson, Smith, Hawkins, Alexander, Barker, Brown, Julian, Blakeney, Gad-dis.

Movie Operators

These are the boys Mr. Alexander trains to run the movie Projector to make "visual education" possible at R.H.S.

Art Appreciation

With a self-explanatory name, this group meets to discuss and study beauty in connection with art.

Second row: Elliot, Hyne, Barker, Julian, Hartman, Casey, Wilke.

Publications

Three major publications at R.H.S.—“The Register,” a weekly newspaper; “The Quill,” a literary annual printing poetry, essays, etc. of student effort, and the annual yearbook, “The Pierian,” record high school events and depict life and people at R.H.S. These mean much in school life now, and will serve as excellent reminders of the school days for future times.

Pierian Staff

Seated: Conolly, Bundy (editor), Frame, Glunt.

Standing: Duning, Fox, Grimm, Mikesell, Wilke, Crist, Hill, Sperling, Berheide, Embry, Arkenberg, Cofield, Niersbach, Taylor.

In circle: Tom Hill, assistant editor; Jack Bundy, editor, and Barbara Frame, business manager, are seen looking over the plans for the Pierian.

Quill

Second row: Sibert, Wilke, Robinson.

Third row: Schoemaker, Quaglio, Ramey, Wiggins.

Fourth row: Ingle, Beasley, Kraus, Mrs. Thistlethwaite.

Fifth row: Duvall, Jones, Griffis.

Sixth row: Cordell, Niersback, Blickwedel, Crist.

Register Staffs

Third hour every Friday finds distribution of the Register in progress. Behind these printed pages are hours of painstaking work done during and after school hours in Room 102 by members of the staff and the Journalism 1 classes.

Tom Hill and John Beasley were editors for the fall and spring semesters, respectively, under the direction of Mr. Holder, faculty sponsor.

Fall Staff

Second row: Harbin, Dile, Goodwin.

Third row: Galbreath, Witte, Cooper, Robinson.

Fourth row: Melling, Shoemaker, Tompkins, Steele, Fox.

Fifth row: Hodgins, Kanost, Trick, Frame, Mr. Holder.

Spring Staff

Second row: Duff, Quaglio, Adams, Steele.

Third row: Stuck, Embry, Conolly.

Fourth row: Jay, Miss Murphy, Hammontree, Duvall.

The Girls in White and Blue

Largest organized club in the school, Girl Reserves is co-operatively sponsored by the high school and the Y.W.C.A.

Activities and programs are governed by selected girls known as the Cabinet. Each member of this cabinet is in turn the leader of a group of girls divided according to interests.

The club has a few major activities carried on in addition to the individual group programs. For the past year these included their two annual dances, the Christmas Vesper Service, and the City-Wide Youth Conference (both cooperatively done with the Senior Hi-Y).

*Best wishes

Chasteen's Group

Seated: Caskey, Overmire, Smith, Penland.

Standing: Fisher, Howes, Morrow, Walton, Chasteen, Rottinghaus, Hawkins, Carman, Corbin.

Jay's Group

Second row: Crist, Wilke, Campbell, Cline, Jay, Crane, Hanes, Davis.

Conolly's Group

Second row: Kutter, Maddox, Scotten, Dilks, Cronin.

Third row: Joch, McCashland, Fitzharris, Conolly, Hopkins.

Fourth row: King, Elliot, Peters, Magsin, Hunt, Englebert.

Schaffer's Group

Seated: Jesiop, Henry, Hofeinz.

Standing: Gilmore, Stephens, Rourke, Schaffer, Wilson, Velton, Edwards.

Adam's Group

Second row: Rust, Miller, Barker, Gaddis, Julian, Moore.

Third row: Austerman, Aubin, Anderson, Long, Johnson, Hastings, Mendenhall, Turner, Beeson.

Duff's Group

Second row: McCauley, Bullerdick, Bittner, Juerling, Kutter, Roberts, Lane.

Third row: Hopkins, Duning, Thomas, Cutter, Scotten, Baker, Ahaus.

Fourth row: Peters, Dilks, Kelley, Fitzharris, Mattox, VanAusdall, Osborn.

Fifth row: Patton, McCashland, Laurias, Cronin, Keen, Joch, Blainis, Ripberger.

Night Group

Seated: Miss Sperling, Duvall, Hammontree, Quaglio, and Stuck.

Standing: Cain, Holzapfel, Ramey, Rich, Black, Mercurio, Hoke, Jones, Dilks, Witt, Sabrocchi, De-Lauro, Schattel, Samms, Hopkins, Stinetorf, Hufford.

Embry and Dittrich's Group

Front row: Doty, Milton, Dittrick, Embry, Knight, Veal, Trelawney.

Second row: J. Wickett, Zuzulo, Hascall, B. Wickett, Patti.

Third row: Ashby, Mayer, Arkenberg, Frame, Gardener, McWinney.

Fourth row: Dunning, Ringley, Lyman, Smith, Kinnear, Huntington, Duning, Larsh, Alexander.

Janet Steele's Group

Due to an error in layout the picture of Janet Steele's group was omitted. The names of the girls in the group are as follows: Keelor, Smith, Willson, Mills, Overton, Binford, Williams, Maley, Edwards, Harris, Skehan, Wysong, Swihart, Mrs. Thislethwaite, Blakeney.

Music Department

The Music Department offers R.H.S. students many opportunities to learn both instrumental and choral music and to give performances showing their skill.

In addition to the already organized Band, Orchestra, Choir and Pep Band, several ensembles, quartettes, etc. have been organized. Several of these groups won excellent ratings at the State Music Contest.

Music has been a high point in high school life all through the years, keeping the beautiful and cultural things a part of student life.

Pep Band

An important part of most pep assemblies, the swing and rhythm put out by the R.H.S. Pep Band seems extremely popular with students. The 11-man group played for several school affairs, including The Irish Stew, and Devil's Den.

Second row: Hill, Luby, Hutson, Cressler, Gates, Smith.

Band

The R.H.S. Band has made quite a name for itself entertaining the crowds during the half-time period at basketball and football games, in their annual concerts, or in various civic affairs and student assemblies.

They play a wide variety of numbers from "Brazil" on the popular side to selections from the classics. Though it demands lots of hard work and practice, each band member receives valuable training, and their hard work is displayed in their excellent programs.

Girls Glee Club

Second row: Burgess, J. Green.

Third row: Griffis, Baldwin, S. Green.

Orchestra

The High School Orchestra, although small in numbers, is certainly capable of giving excellent performances of famous works, both classical and popular, that make up its repertoire.

In addition to their main concerts and the May Music Festival, the orchestra provides its members with many chances for individual and group work both in and out of school. Many of the orchestra members took part in the excellent Civic Theatre presentation of the world famous fairy opera, "Hansel and Gretel."

Choral Music the R.H.S. Way

Always on call when vocal music is wanted by the community, the R.H.S. choir has sung before most of the city's service clubs and given concerts for the students of Earlham College as well as the high school—all in addition to regular concerts, special civic occasions, the May Music Festival, etc.

The Choir is the largest musical group in the school, with almost eighty voices. They have a large repertoire of excellent songs.

A section of the choir at one of its daily rehearsals in McGuire Hall. The group was under the direction of Mr. Ben Graham, with the help of a student teacher from Earlham College, Miss Barbara Sims.

Social Life

The lighter side of life after school at R.H.S.—Devil's Den on Friday and Saturday nights—class parties—the big school dances, the Prom, and Queen of Hearts, with the excitement of crowning some lucky girl "Queen," and all the other dances and mixers that have given us "memories"—they all make up this Social Life.

Many will recognize the pictures below as having been taken in the Devil's Den, the R.H.S. recreation center on Friday and Saturday nights.

Athletics

Given a new place of importance by the war, the R.H.S. Athletic Department carries on an impressive program of varsity sports, including football, basketball, baseball, track, and golf.

In addition to varsity athletics, strenuous intramural and physical fitness programs are carried on, giving an excellent outlet for the excess energies of busy high school students of today.

erhart, and Mr. Lowell

Faculty Athletic Sponsors

It takes a group of responsible faculty men to keep the athletic program running smoothly at R.H.S. Someone always has to see to the managing of the crowds, hiring officials, driving the team to out-of-town games, and a host of other important duties.

These are only a few of the important jobs in connection with the athletic program that are performed by faculty members, in addition to coaching.

Cheer Leaders

Organized cheering from the onlookers is an important part of winning any ball game, and without cheer leaders, organized yelling would be impossible.

Hours were spent practicing new yells and routines by our yell leaders this year in preparation for their duty of keeping high the spirits of a Richmond team whether it was winning or not.

Managers

Many jobs are included in the position of "manager" on a high school team. Getting out towels, keeping track of equipment, and doing hundreds of other "extra duties." It is a lot of work, but managers are eventually repaid by being awarded a letter-sweater, which seems to be worth all the trouble.

Cahoon, manager, Castellucio, Bowsman, Fry, Weller, Brown, Smith.

Second row: Clark, Quigley, Bell, Cofield, Beasley, Coblentz, Trick, manager.

Third row: Whaley, manager, Goens, Mikesell, Hyde, Cutter, Nickleson, Fitzgibbons, Coach Eberhart.

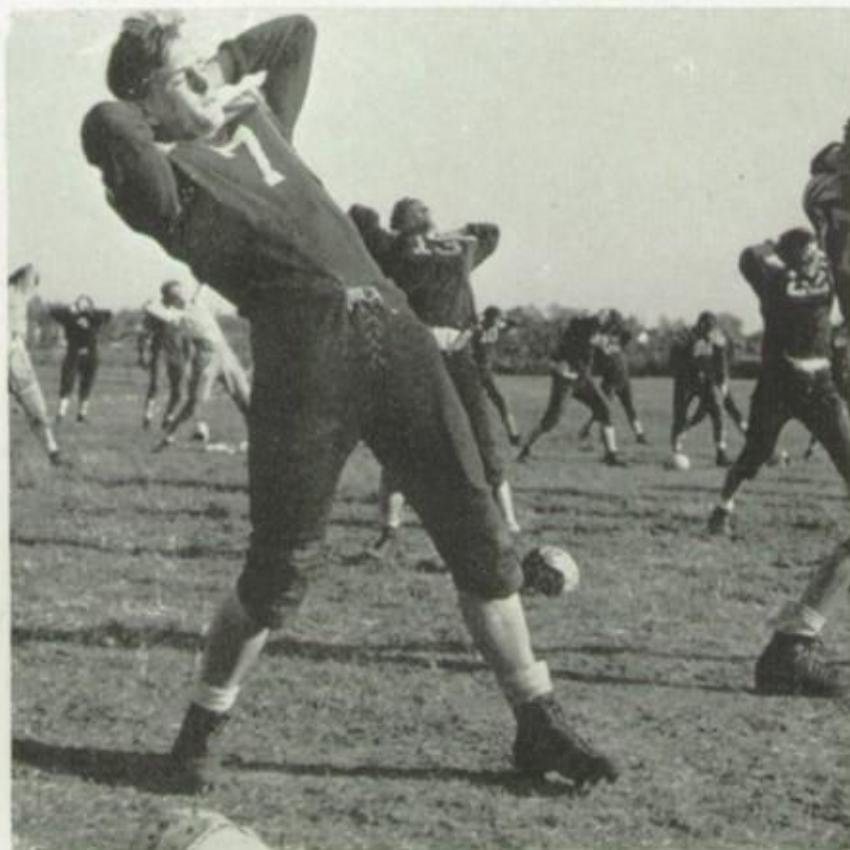

Fourth row: Patrisso, Steele, McGarvey, Sickman, Hill, Kendall, Shumaker, Jones.

Though they won only two contests while dropping six this year, Coach Elder J. Eberhart's inexperienced gridders came through with several very fine performances on the home grounds. However, they didn't do so well away from home.

The Devils lost their opener on the home field to Frankfort, 12-6, after leading 6-0 at the half. At Broad Ripple the Richmond attack bogged down as the Rockets beat the Devils, 18-0.

Returning home to face a veteran revenge-seeking New Castle squad, the Devils turned in a fine performance by limiting the Trojans to a 6-0 win, after holding them scoreless the first half.

Richmond	0	Broad Ripple	18
Richmond	0	New Castle	6
Richmond	6	McGuffey	0
Richmond	0	Lafayette	6
Richmond	7	Knightstown	0
Richmond	0	Anderson	19
Richmond	0	Tech of Indianapolis	33

Then came their victory over McGuffey, which was followed by their best performance of the season, a 6-0 defeat at the hands of Jeff of Lafayette.

The Red Devils then terminated their home play with a 7-0 victory over Morton Memorial of Knightstown, played in a cold, drizzling downpour.

The Devils finished their season with two defeats on the road. First they fell victim to Anderson's passing and running attack to the tune of 19-0.

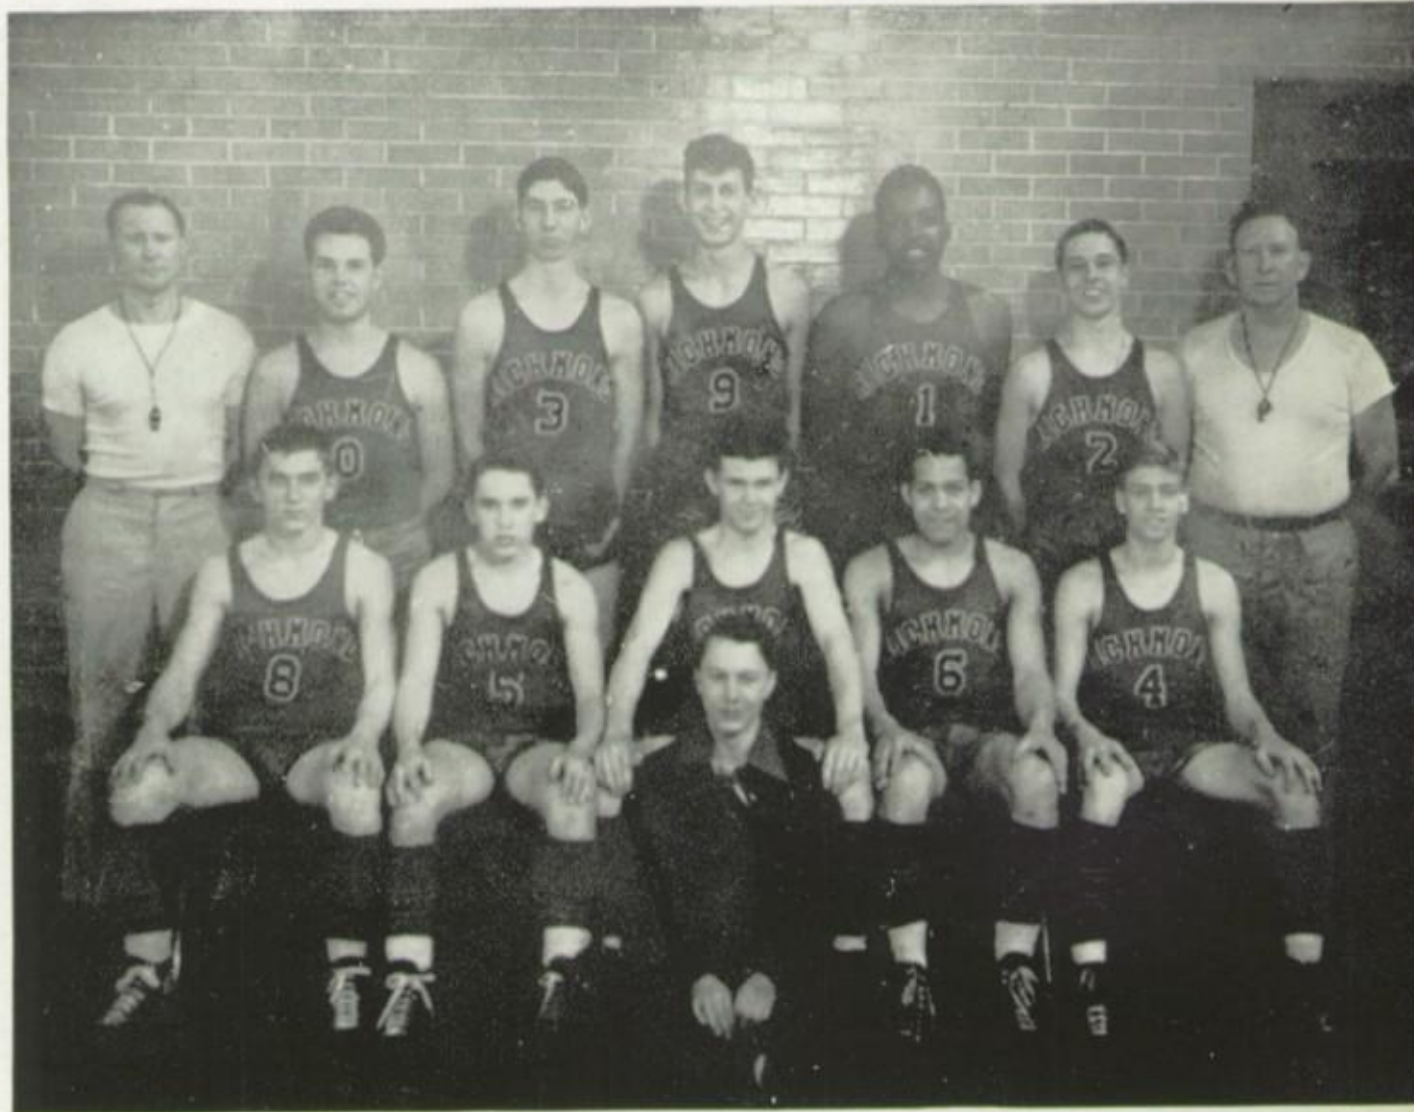

The final game of the season went to a big Indianapolis Tech team, 33-0. The big Green, which outweighed the Devils at every position, just rolled along steadily throughout the game, limiting the Red Devils to two first downs.

Basketball

An inexperienced group of boys made up the 1943-44 R.H.S. basketball squad. And, despite the fact that the boys worked hard and fought all the way, the competition furnished by the North Central conference—the toughest schoolboy conference in the state—proved too much for the Devils, the final season count being 17 losses and one victory.

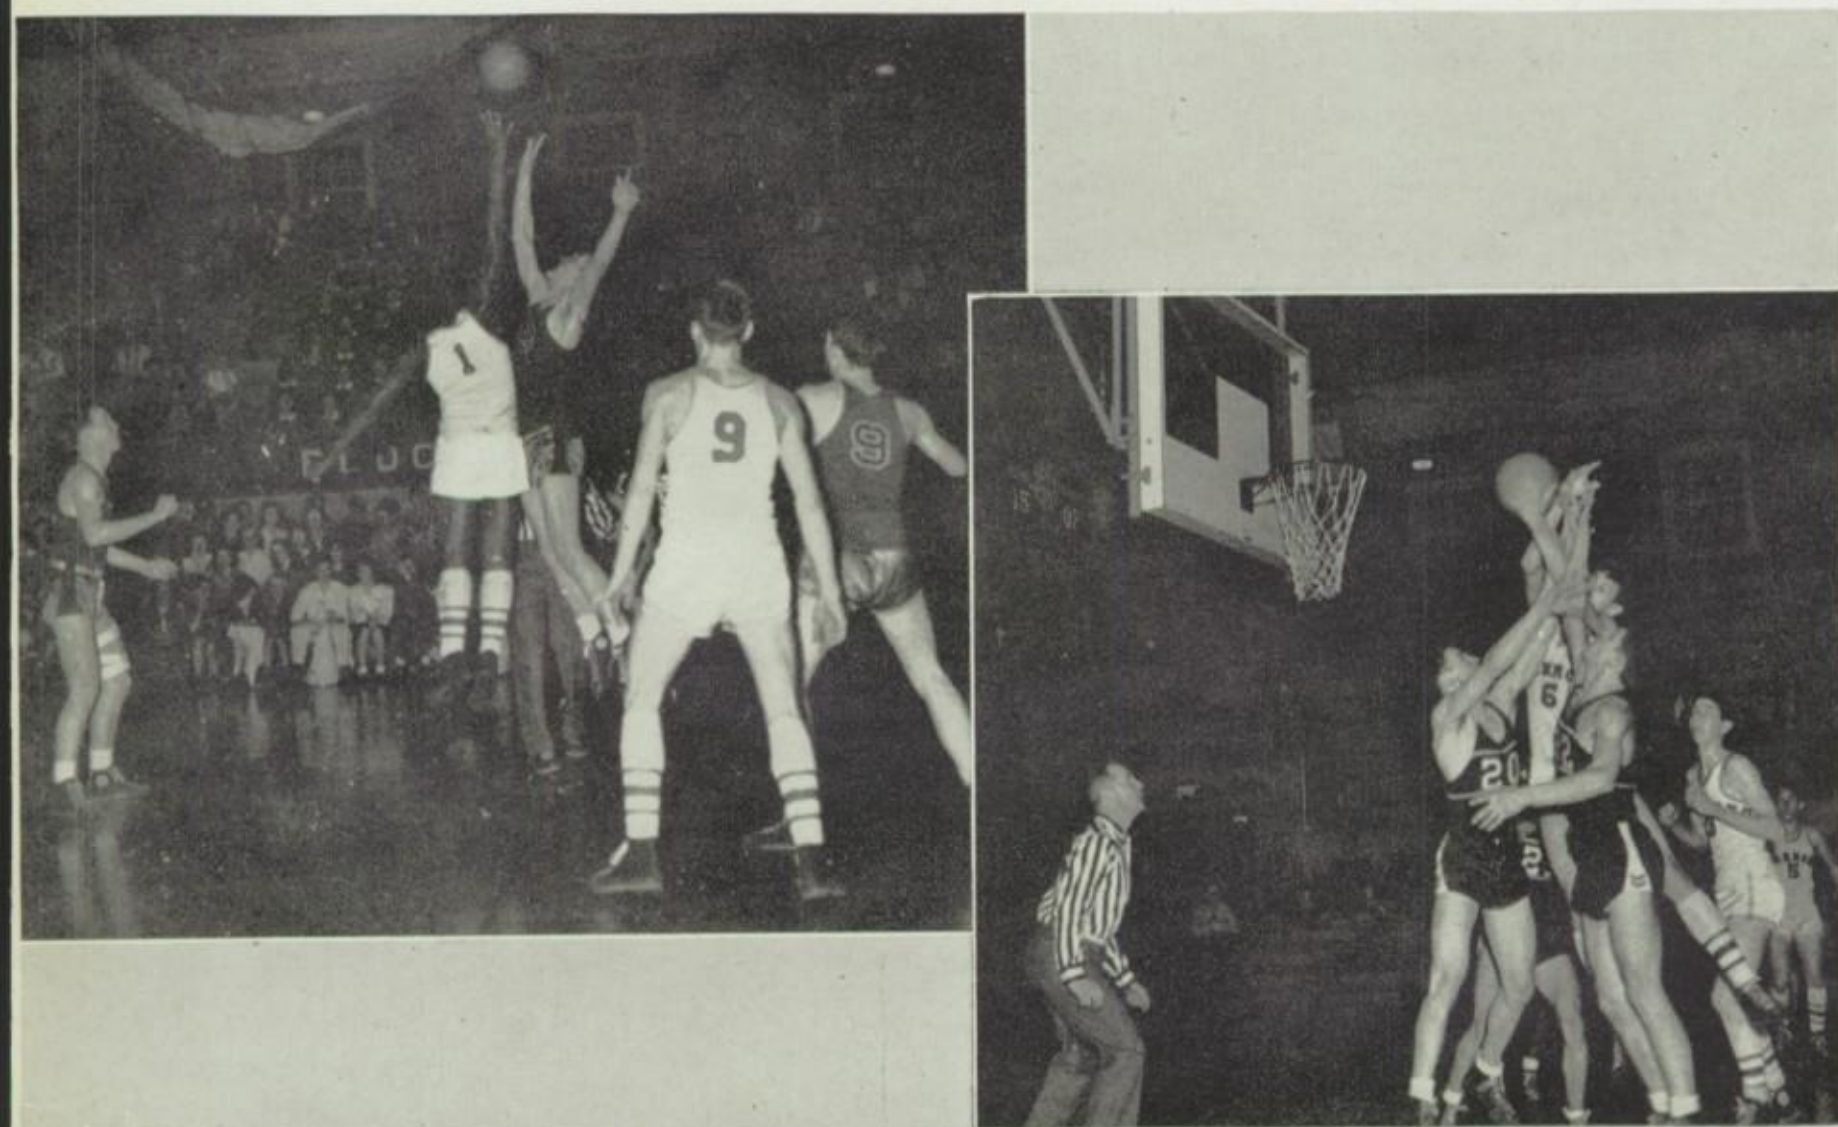

Opening their season without the services of a single letterman and with only a few boys who had had any "B team" experience, the Devil netters fell first at the hands of a tough little Liberty squad.

Then followed a series of defeats—a string ending only when the boys trounced Connersville's Spartans, 42-36, in the last home game of the season.

Some of the year's best performances came despite the fact that the locals were usually on the short end of the score. The Red Devils held the highly touted Anderson Indians to a ten-point margin—44-34, and came within a few points of beating Riley of South Bend, one of the better teams from northern Indiana.

Entering the sectional tourney with only one victory under their belts, the Devil Netters managed to win two hotly contested battles before being eliminated by an unusually strong Center-ville team.

Only two seniors were on the squad and, Uncle Sam permitting, there will be plenty of experienced material returning, giving Richmond fans hopes of "good hunting" next season.

Intramural Basketball

Mahlon Brown's undefeated cagers emerged from the Richmond High school intramural tournament as the champions for 1944. Brown's squad dropped Norman Williams' boys in the final contest, 19-18.

The Intramural league consisted of eighteen teams, with the games being played on Tuesday and Thursday nights in Civic Hall. Mr. Dudley Johnson was the faculty director.

The All-Star squad, as picked by Mr. Johnson, is as follows: forwards, Norman Williams, Bob Nicoletta, Duke Mesker; centers, Bill Eiler, Johnny Schneider; guards, John Merrell, Morris Mikesell, and Bob Quigley.

Second row: Valentine, Mills, Hyde, Quigley, Cramer, Weller, Conyers.

Third row: Schneider, Atkins, Simonson, Steele, McGill, Brehm, Ryan.

Baseball at R. H. S.

With ten boys back from last year's squad, Coach Palmer Sponsler was able to round his 1944 baseball team into contenders for the North Central conference title. Six of the ten returning lads were letter men.

The Red Devil nine opened against Hagerstown, and behind the pitching of Bob Quigley, Jack Bundy, and Barney Runnels, won 7-0. Richmond dropped the Liberty Warriors in the next game, then defeated Hagerstown in a return game there.

The Red Devils suffered their first defeat at the hands of the Shelbyville nine 3-2, as the Richmond lads failed to hit the Shelbyville southpaw.

Quigley, Bundy, Runnels, and Cramer did most of the hurling; Valentine, Stigleman, Greulich, Mills, and Hufnagel, infield; Hyde, Jones, Conyers, Simonson, outfield, and Weller and Schroeder, catchers.

Second row: Phillips, Ballard, J. Sperling, Trout, C. Sperling, Veregge, Beasley, Gordon, Baldwin, Duvall.

Third row: Luther, Gilmore, Hunt, Rhodes, Larsh, Patrisso, Hill, Nicholson, Cressler, Erwin, Coach Eberhart.

Richmond Thinly Clads

Having only one letterman, Everett Veregge, returning this season, Coach Elder J. Eberhart came up with a promising group of rookies on his 1944 track squad.

Aiding Veregge especially in racking up points for the Red Devils were Curtis Gilmore, a sophomore, and Vernon Cressler, a junior, both of whom were out for track for the first time. Gilmore runs the 440-yard dash, and Cressler the longer distances.

The North Central conference meet was held at Anderson this year with the Anderson thinlies taking the meet. The Red Devils took eighth place.

In a final tune up meet before the sectional, the Richmond thinly clads trounced Morton Memorial of Knightstown, 72-37, at Knightstown.

Students Aid War Effort

R.H.S. students pitched right in and helped the community out on one of the main problems that the war has brought to Richmond—that of manpower.

More than 650 students had jobs during the past year—a new all-time high. They worked in war plants, retail stores, offices, and on the farm.

The pictures on these two pages were taken of R.H.S. students in a few of the many places where they toil.

Girls, such as Barbara Hickman, left, are handling men's jobs in factories.

Howard Wright and Dick West, right, clerk in one of the downtown stores.

The job of placing these students, and keeping in touch with their employers, etc. was given to Mr. Paul Robertson, whose crew of trusty workers put in many long hours compiling statistics and conducting surveys of R.H.S. workers.

Elected by the students, Howard Cofield took over the duties of dean of boys, Bruce Griffin was principal for the day, and Doris Ditrach was dean of girls.

Citizenship Day

Proving to the community that students of R.H.S. can govern themselves, Citizenship Day turned out to be a real success. The students took over all the posts of the teachers, deans, and that of the principal.

The many visitors that the school had that day saw the school run as smoothly and as efficiently as it would have had the faculty members been at their regular posts.

Howard Cofield is seen here going over his duties with Mr. James Farmer, regular dean of boys.

These three senior pictures failed to make the deadline, and thus could not be included with the senior panels. They are, left to right: Rosemary Bren-neman, William Moore, and Kenneth Wickemeyer.

Summer School, 1943

Ushered in by the war, the Richmond High School's Summer program enables many students to accelerate their courses, which, in the case of the boys, gives more time for college work before going into the armed services.

Although the student body was small, nevertheless, the students carried on normal school activities, the seniors displayed their yellow cords, and, held dances and the many other activities that come with seniorhood.
